Daniel, I know I'm a little stressed about the Guestbook issue so I apologize if I type something insulting, however, I called the support people on Friday at 1:56pm and they couldn't help me; all I got was transferred to a voice-mail for your group and the call was never returned--not very good customer service, and there's no voice mail message from your group on my cell phone or office number returning my call because I've just checked my voice-mail for both. I have not tried the Guestbook feature this morning, however, if it is NOT working, I want the Guestbook issue fixed today. It would really be helpful, given the problems, if I could talk to someone on the phone (and during that call) email you (or whomever) what I have already emailed or what they don't have. I have to be out of the office today between 9:30am-11:30am. Ron

Good Morning/Afternoon,

If you could resend just the information that you needed added that would help with getting the changes done faster as we will not have to go through all of the other information to find the few things.

For the issue with the guest book and for assistance with making changes your self you will want to contact our customer support department at 480-505-8877.

Thank You,

Good Morning/Afternoon,

The site is accessible at this time. If you want to gather all the additions that you wanted to add into maintenance one more time for us that will help in being able to get those done easier for you when we start the maintenance ticket.

Thank You,
